

“For there were many leaders when the destruction of Jerusalem was at hand, who declared themselves to be Christ, and that the time of deliverance was drawing nigh. Many heresiarchs also in the Church have preached that the day of the Lord is at hand, whom the Apostles condemn. (2 Thess. 2:2.) Many Antichrists also came in Christ’s name, of whom the first was Simon Magus, who said, This man is the great power of God. (Acts 8:10.)”

The beautiful chandelier hanging in the vestibule is a gift from the family of Frank and Carmela Castellucci.

Their children, John Castellucci and Francine Castellucci are honored to share this gift with our church family in the memory of their parents. The chandelier hung over their dining room table for many years on Walking Stick Trail while they attended Immaculate Conception Church.
