

“Man casts seed into the ground, when he places a good intention in his heart; and he sleeps, when he already rests in the hope which attends on a good work. But he rises night and day, because he advances amidst prosperity and adversity, though he knows it not, for he is as yet unable to measure his increase, and yet virtue, once conceived, goes on increasing. “

Greetings Church Family!

MUSIC

Summer is upon us as we continue in Ordinary Time until the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary in August. Thank you all for participating in the Mass of Creation! Special thanks to the choir and to Evander for his help with cantoring. IF you have any talent at all you would like to share during the mass, please let me know. I think some of you are hiding those gifts and I am happy to nudge you from your shell!

And while we are still blessed with someone to play for most Sundays, I would like to find a regular pianist or organist for the 10:00 mass.

Choir rehearsal continues this summer at 9:30 in the sanctuary. I apologize if we distract anyone from your prayer time. We will finish by 9:50 to ensure your time for prayerful reflection.

Come, let us sing for joy to the LORD; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.

Psalm 95:1

Michael
