

“For He did not only foretell to His disciples the good things which He would give to His saints and faithful ones, but also the woes in which this world was to abound, that we might look for our reward at the end of the world with more confidence, from feeling the woes in like manner announced as about to precede the end of the world.”

MUSIC

Greetings Church Family!

Themes found in today's readings: Being prepared and faithfulness to God.
God Bless our Veterans!

I am so grateful for the choir and all our musicians who help us each week. My special thanks go to Wendy Cabral and Carol Pope who are filling in for the 10:00 mass to be sure we have beautiful music that enhances the liturgy and honors God. We were also blessed by the quartet from Grove Park Baptist Church last Sunday. Many of you complimented their spirit-filled rendition of "The Lord's Prayer." There are so many gifts and talents in our church. What talents has God given you? And how are you using your gifts to glorify God? There are so many "gift givers" in our parish: readers, preparing the altar, repairs (those kneelers get a workout each week), counters, eucharistic ministers, altar servers, ushers, and the gift of preparing food and outreach. The list is endless!

Have a blessed week! Michael
