

“Observe also in another respect the folly of his words, when he says, I will gather all my fruits, as if he thought that he had not obtained them from God, but that they were the fruits of his own labors. The rich man then builds barns which last not, but decay, and what is still more foolish, reckons for himself upon a long life; for it follows, And I will say unto my soul, ‘Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years.’ But, O rich man, thou hast indeed fruits in thy barns, but as for many years whence canst thou obtain them?

MUSIC

Greetings Church Family!

Themes found in today's Readings: Looking towards heaven and eternal life/
Asking what is important to us, and what we value.

Responsorial: "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts." Psalm 90

I have taken some time to ponder about what I value and what I have learned from everyday experiences. Rick Warren from The Purpose Driven Life has once again come to my rescue:

*What has God taught me from failure?

*What has God taught me through waiting?

*What have I learned from my family, my church, my relationships, AND from my critics?

Just some food for thought!

Blessings to you! Michael
